REPORT ON THE ELECTION OF THE CHAIRPERSON OF THE COMMISSION OF THE AFRICAN UNION

REPORT ON THE ELECTION OF THE CHAIRPERSON OF THE COMMISSION OF THE AFRICAN UNION

I. INTRODUCTION

1. The information contained in this paper is based on the provisions of the Rules of Procedure of the Assembly of the Union and the Statutes of the Commission of the African Union adopted by the First Ordinary Session of the Assembly of the Union held in Durban, South Africa, in July 2002 as well as the Modalities for Election of the Members of the Commission of the African Union adopted by the Executive Council in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia in January 2007.

2. It will be recalled that the Chairperson of the Commission was elected in Maputo, Mozambique, in July 2003 for a four-year term. In this regard, the Commission informed Member States that the election of the Chairperson would be conducted during the Ninth Ordinary Session of the Assembly scheduled for Accra, Ghana in July 2007. The deadline for submission of candidatures was set as at 30 March 2007. Upon expiry of the said deadline, the Commission informed Member States that no candidature had been received for the post of Chairperson.

3. It will further be recalled that the Assembly meeting in Accra, Ghana, in July 2007 decided to defer the election of the members of the Commission to the forthcoming sessions of the policy organs scheduled for January 2008. The deadline for submission of candidatures was extended to 30 October 2007.

4. The Commission, upon expiry of the deadline communicated the status of candidatures for the post of Chairperson of the Commission to all Member States. It informed them that since July 2007, that it had received six (6) candidatures for the post of Chairperson of the Commission. The curriculum vitae of the candidates are annexed to this report.

- y) coordinate all activities and programmes of the Commission related to gender issues.

The Chairperson may delegate any of his/her functions to the Deputy Chairperson of the Commission.

10. The Chairperson plays an important role regarding conflict prevention, management, resolution and mediation since the entry into force of the Protocol Relating to the Establishment of the Peace and Security Council of the African Union. In this regard, the Chairperson of the Commission, under the authority of the Peace and Security Council, and in consultation with all parties involved in a conflict, should deploy efforts and take all initiatives deemed appropriate to prevent, manage and resolve conflicts. To this end, the Chairperson of the Commission is expected to:

- a) bring to the attention of the Peace and Security Council any matter, which, in his/her opinion, may threaten peace, security and stability in the Continent;
- b) bring to the attention of the Panel of the Wise any matter which, in his/her opinion, deserves their attention;
- c) use his/her good offices, either personally or through special envoys, special representatives, the Panel of the Wise or the Regional Mechanisms, at his/her own initiative or when so requested by the Peace and Security Council, to prevent potential conflicts, resolve actual conflicts and promote peace-building and post-conflict reconstruction.

11. The Chairperson of the Commission is also expected, with regard to issues of conflict prevention, management and resolution to:

- a) ensure the implementation and follow-up of the decisions of the Peace and Security Council, including mounting and deploying peace support missions authorized by the Peace and Security Council. In this respect, the Chairperson of the Commission shall keep the Peace and Security Council informed of developments relating to the functioning of such missions. All problems likely to affect the continued and effective functioning of these missions shall be referred to the Peace and Security Council, for its consideration and appropriate action;

- b) ensure the implementation and follow-up of the decisions taken by the Assembly in conformity with Article 4 (h) and (j) of the Constitutive Act;
