REPORT ON THE STATUS OF OAU/AU TREATIES
(As at 22 January 2008)

REPORT ON THE STATUS OF OAU/AU TREATIES
(As at 22 January 2008)

A. INTRODUCTION

1. The report of the Chairperson of the Commission on the Status of AU Treaties was first prepared at the request of the 66th Ordinary Session of the Council of Ministers held in Harare, Zimbabwe, from 26 to 28 May, 1997 and submitted to the 67th Ordinary Session of Council. In taking note of the report, Council emphasized that Member States be reminded regularly of the status of signatures and ratification or accession of these Treaties. Accordingly, the report has become a regular item on the agenda of the Council

B. ISSUES AND CURRENT SITUATION:

2. Since its inception in 1963, the policy organs of the Organization of African Unity and the African Union have adopted thirty-three (33) Treaties, the most recent being the African Charter on Democracy, Elections and Governance adopted in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, on 30 January 2007. Twenty-one (21) of these Treaties have entered into force while two (2) additional treaties namely: the Constitution of the Association of African Trade Promotion Organizations (1974) and the African Maritime Transport Charter (1994) are in force provisionally. The remainder are in various stages of signature and ratification or accession.

3. Furthermore, since the submission of the last report in June 2007, some Member States have made considerable efforts to sign and ratify OAU/AU treaties especially the five (5) Maputo treaties, the Protocol to the Convention on Terrorism adopted in July 2004 and the African Union Non-Aggression and Common Defence Pact adopted in January 2005, African Youth Charter adopted in July 2006 and the African Charter on Democracy, Elections and Governance adopted in January 2007.

4. During the reporting period, thirty-two (32) new signatures were appended and thirty-seven (37) additional instruments of ratification were deposited.

5. However, even though some Member States have made giant efforts to sign and ratify or accede to OAU/AU Treaties, a lot remains outstanding. It should be emphasized that treaties adopted under the aegis of the OAU/AU, which, by definition, address issues of specific concern to Africa, should be given utmost priority.

6. The Commission is a depositary to the following AU Treaties:

- I. General Convention on the Privileges and Immunities of the Organization of African Unity *

* Treaties that have entered into force definitively.

- II. Additional Protocol to the OAU General Convention on Privileges and Immunities *

C. THE WAY THE COMMISSION HAS ADDRESSED THESE ISSUES:

139. It is to be recalled that previously, Council had by virtue of decision CM/Dec.511 (LXXI), requested the Secretary-General to undertake a systematic review of all OAU Treaties with a view to establishing their relevance and to identify those that require to be updated or cancelled and identifying areas requiring the conclusion of new treaties. A meeting of Legal Experts was convened in 2004 whose recommendations were adopted with amendments by the Executive Council in July 2004. Council further authorized the Commission to convene meetings of experts to examine the recommendations and to elaborate the necessary legal instruments. The Commission has since developed a paper on the way forward to guide the next steps to be taken in this regard and advised concerned departments of the actions expected of them.

D. ACHIEVEMENTS, PROGRESS AND CONSTRAINTS:

140. As has been reported in the last three sessions of Council, the new and advanced database system that enables easy compilation and generation of status lists has been very helpful in popularising the OAU/AU treaties. It has also enabled the Member States to obtain their individual country status list as well as status list for each treaty from the Office of the Legal Counsel. Moreover, the updated status lists for each treaty is readily available online at the AU website; www.africa-union.org

E. CONCLUSION AND RECOMMENDATIONS:

141. In light of the foregoing, the Commission submits the following recommendations for consideration of the Executive Council:

- Take note of the report;
- Commend the Chairperson of the Commission and the Commission as a whole for the initiatives and efforts aimed at encouraging Member States to become State Parties to the OAU/AU Treaties;
- Appeal to Member States to prioritise and accelerate the signing and ratification/accession to OAU/AU Treaties
- Reiterate its appeal to the members of the Pan-African Parliament to assist with advocacy and sensitization of Member States to expedite the process of ratification/accession to OAU/AU Treaties;
