- ix) Republic of South Africa for election as member of the Economic and Social Council for the period 2013-2015, during the 67th Session of the UN General Assembly in New York, in 2012. After hearing the presentation made by the African Union Mission in New York, giving a report on the consensus within the African Group in New York on the candidatures of Benin, Mauritius, South Africa, The Sudan and Tunisia, the Committee also endorsed the candidatures of these countries for election as member of the Economic and Social Council;

7. Eritrea as East Africa representative, for election as member of the UN Consultative Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions, at elections to be held during the 66th Session of the UN General Assembly in New York in November 2012, in place of the candidature of Kenya, in the person of Mr George Orina, following the emerging consensus of the East Africa region. Having noted that it was not competent to examine candidatures for positions within African institutions, the Committee did not consider the following:

- i) Mr. Wilfrid A. Serge Martin of Benin, for election to the post of Secretary General of the Pan African Postal Union(PAPU), at elections which took place in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia in July 2012;
- ii) Mr. Kolawole Raheem Aduloju of Nigeria, for election to the post of Assistant Secretary General of the Pan African Postal Union (PAPU), during elections which will take place in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia from 4-13 July.

8. In addition to the candidature of East Africa which received the consensus of that region, with regard to positions within the UN Consultative Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions there was disagreement on the representation of West Africa region within the Committee. The Executive Council had endorsed the candidature of Benin at its January 2012 Session (EX.CL/Dec.692 (XX)), but Senegal held that its candidature had also been submitted within the deadline, but was not tabled for consideration by the Ministerial Committee at the aforementioned session. Senegal also argued that, on the basis of the principle that candidatures should be submitted to the Executive Committee Session preceding the election to the desired post, it was convinced of its right to submit its candidature. The Committee decided to refer this matter to the Executive Committee for a decision, after expressing the view that it had no competence to rewrite a decision taken by the Executive Council. By way of update, the said Decision reads as follows:

- i) The candidature of Mr. Joseph V. Acakpo-Satchivi of Benin, which had been endorsed at the preceding Session of Council, for election as member of the UN Consultative Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions at elections which will take place during the 67th Session of the UN General Assembly in New York in November 2012;
- ii) The candidature of Mr Babou Sene of Senegal for election as member of the UN Consultative Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions, at elections which will take place during the 67th Session of the UN General Assembly in New York in November 2012.

9. As regards the candidature of the Republic of Cameroon for election to the post of President of the 69th Session of the UN General Assembly in 2014, the Committee noted that this candidature had been submitted within the deadline for consideration by the Ministerial Committee at its July 2012 Session. However, to ensure equity for and accessibility of all States which desire the position, the Committee proposed that consideration of this post be done at the next session which precedes election to the post.

10. The Committee decided to defer consideration of the candidature of the People's Democratic Republic of Algeria for election as member of the United Nations Human Rights Council to the next sessions when the turn for the position becomes that of North Africa;

11. The Committee decided to endorse the unique candidatures which arrived outside of deadlines, with a view to ensuring that Africa is represented in the following positions:

- i) The candidature of Dr. Lassina Zerbo of Burkina Faso, for election to the post of Executive Secretary of the Comprehensive Nuclear-Test-Ban Treaty Organization (CTBTO), at elections to be held during the 39th Session of the Preparatory Commission of the Organization, due to take place in Vienna, Austria from 22 to 24 October 2012;
- ii) The candidature of Mr. Alan Kyerematen John Kwadwo of Ghana, for election to the post of Director General of the World Trade Organization, at elections which will take place this year;
- iii) The candidature of Namibia to host the Secretariat of the Green Fund for Climate Change.

12. The Committee observed that elections to the posts listed hereunder had already taken place and that it was not necessary to consider them:

- i) The candidature of Ms Violet Awori of Kenya for re-election as member of the United Nations Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination Against Women (CEDAW), during elections which took place in Geneva, in June 2012;
- ii) The candidature of Dr. Mabruka Sheriff Jabril Ali Maidani of Libya, as Expert of the United Nations Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination Against Women (CEDAW), which took place in New York on 26 June 2012;
- iii) The candidature of Mrs. Fatou Kiné Camara of Senegal, for election as member of the United Nations Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination Against Women (CEDAW), which took place in New York on 26 June 2012;
- iv) The candidature of Mrs. Theodora Oby Nwankwo of Nigeria, for election as member of the United Nations Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination Against Women (CEDAW), which took place in New York on 26 June 2012;

- v) The candidature of Mrs Virginie Shéry Nicole N'Dessabeka of Congo, for election as member of the United Nations Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination Against Women (CEDAW), which took place in New York on 26 June 2012;
- vi) The candidature of Mr. Kalngui Emmanuel of Cameroon, for re-election as member of the Commission on the Limits of the Continental Shelf of the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea, at elections which took place during the 22nd Session of the Assembly of States Parties, in New York from 4 to 11 June 2012;
- vii) The candidature of Mr. Isaac Owusu Oduro of Ghana, for re-election as member of the Commission on the Limits of the Continental Shelf of the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea, at elections which took place during the 22nd Session of the Assembly of States Parties, in New York from 4 to 11 June 2012.

VI. ANY OTHER BUSINESS

13. The Committee recommended an urgent revision of the Rules of Procedure of the Ministerial Committee on Candidatures in order to take on board the numerous gaps highlighted during consideration of the candidatures.
