The Commission was urged to send invoices out in Oct-Nov (of the year preceding the implementing year) instead of January of the implementing year;

h) In relation to the Alternative Sources of Financing, it was noted that, the paper had not adequately addressed the issue of how the alternative sources of financing would be managed, the timeline and other operational details of the fund;

   b) Adoption of the Agenda;
   c) Consideration of the Report of the Previous Meeting;
   d) Consideration of the 2016 Budget Framework Paper;
   e) Any Other Business.

I. OPENING REMARKS

14. The meeting was chaired by Her Excellency Diallo Amina Djibo. The Chairperson recalled the context in which the meeting was being held, saying that during the previous meeting, the Commission had been asked to, among other things, shorten/summarise the draft Budget Framework Paper and that this had been done. She also pointed out that the PRC Sub Committee had made pertinent recommendations for inclusion in the document and that some of these had largely been taken into consideration. She requested the Sub-Committee to focus more on the 2016 priorities in order to give the Commission a go ahead with the rest of the work on the budget. She then introduced the Agenda, and it was adopted without amendments.

15. In his remarks at the meeting, the Deputy Chairperson thanked Member States for the work they were doing and assured them that their observations would be incorporated. He urged the meeting to take enough time to consider the document. He informed the meeting that the Commission was continuously working on the document to make it even shorter while taking into account all the recommendations/observations made by the Member States. He reminded the Member States that the Budget Framework Paper was for the AU and not AUC only.

16. In response to concerns expressed earlier regarding the absence of information on some of the Organs, he assured the meeting that such information would be made available. The Deputy Chairperson also urged the Member States to critically look at the priorities and targets proposed and review their suitability. He also emphasised that under the new Financial Rules and Regulations (FRRs), the Internal Budget Committee had been created to coordinate the planning and budgeting processes within the Union.

J. CONSIDERATION OF THE REVISED 2016 BUDGET FRAMEWORK PAPER

17. After agreeing on the modalities of work, Member States made comments and observations on the document as follows:

K. GENERAL COMMENTS:
18. Member States made the following general comments:

a) On alternative sources of funding, Member States also sought clarification on the working modalities for the Alternative Sources of Funding.

b) Member States sought clarification on the Medium Term Expenditure Framework and whether or not the Commission had already adopted the three year/ Medium Term budget, and if not already adopted, when the Commission expected to adopt it;

c) Member States noted that there was not much information on Agenda 2063 in the document and therefore requested that this be provided. This would include the Aspirations as well as the flagship projects.

d) Member States also commented on the lack of clear strategies to popularize Agenda 2063 and urged the Commission to promptly and formally disseminate the final version of Agenda 2063 as well as the Commission’s Strategic Plan.

e) Member States also commented on the lack of reliable statistics. It was noted that AUC and the Economic Commission for Africa (ECA) both lacked strong statistical laboratories and as such the document made no reference to any statistics from ECA and only used references from the World Bank and other sources. The Commission was urged to use detailed analysis data generated from African institutions (precise and current) to help fathom the situation and to inform strategies/plans. The Commission was therefore advised to devise strategies to rectify this apparent weakness;

f) the Commission was asked to be clear on the importance of beneficiation on the continent, and to ensure that Africa was in control of its resources;

g) Member States pointed out the importance of the single currency to the success of the CFTA and the need to harmonise the continent’s currencies (Africa currently has over 50 currencies);

h) Member States suggested to the Commission to add the following risks: i) External risks—where sanctions imposed by external forces impact on the Union’s operations, an example in point was the when Sudan could not pay its assessed contributions because it could not transfer the payment to the Commission due to sanctions; ii) Terrorism -- because events happening in one part of the continent had the potential to negatively impact the whole continent.

L. RESPONSES BY THE COMMISSION:

19. The Commission made the following responses:
i) The Commission agreed to incorporate more information on Alternative Sources of Funding;

ii) In response to the comment made that the priorities indicated in the Budget Framework Paper showed no strong link to Agenda 2063, the Commission explained that the 2016 budget is essentially based on the Strategic Plan but also reflected some priorities in Agenda 2063 and the First 10 Year Implementation Plan. The Commission further pointed out that, in the revised draft of the document would contain more information on Agenda 2063. The Commission also reminded the meeting that the First 10 Year Implementation Plan will be approved in June 2015, and therefore, the Strategic Plan should remain a key reference document for now;

iii) On the issue of statistics, the Commission agreed that indeed statistics was a problem and that as such, a number of initiatives were already underway to try to deal with this issue, hence the decision to set up a Pan African Institute of Statistics in Tunisia and a training Institute for Statisticians in Ivory Coast. Other on-going efforts to strengthen this area include; the Charter of Statistics, already ratified by 21 Member States; efforts to develop definition and guidelines for statistics development, an initiative that would make it easier to compare data across states/countries in Africa. With regard to operationalizing alternative sources of funding, Member States emphasized the need to outline modalities and institutional arrangements to enable the operationalization process.

iv) Member States requested for more information on the High Speed Train which is one of the flagship projects in Agenda 2063;

v) Recognizing the critical role of the private sector in economic development, Member States requested the Commission to emphasize the importance of Public Private Partnerships (PPP);

vi) Member States requested that issues of economic transformation, industrialization and inclusive growth should be given special emphasis in the light of its impact on growth and job creation;

vii) To include a section that captures the High Speed Train and other Agenda 2063 Flagship projects, since Flagship projects have already been endorsed by the Policy Organs.

viii) Member States observed that the Commission had outlined risks but had not presented risk mitigation strategies and as such urged the Commission to include a section on Risk Mitigation Strategies/Instruments in the document;

ix) Member States advised the Commission to devise strategies to encourage Member States to ratify various Charters and Protocols.
M. RESPONSES BY THE COMMISSION

20. Explanations were given in response to some of the questions and comments as follows:

i) On whether or not, the Commission had already adopted the Medium Term Planning (Medium Term Expenditure Framework), the Commission explained that it had not done the three-year budget because funding, mainly from partners, was only coming on a yearly basis and partners could not commit funds for more than one year. However, with predictable resources from the alternative sources of funding, the MTEF could now be adopted;

ii) With regard to the popularisation of Agenda 2063, the Commission pointed out that efforts were underway to domesticate Agenda 2063 into Member States and RECs plans. In this context, the Commission had convened a workshop in Lusaka, Zambia, to discuss modalities for domestication. The Commission also explained that popularisation of Agenda 2063 was a priority under Outcome 6 in the Budget Framework Paper which deals with Communication.

iii) Commenting on low implementation rates, the Commission explained that this was due to, among other things, late receipt of funds from both Member States and Partners. For example, by end of September 2014, only 50 percent of the required funding had been received thereby, affecting implementation rate;

iv) With regard to modalities of implementation for Alternative Sources of Funding, the Commission pointed out that efforts were underway to address this issue and that, as such an Ad-hoc Committee of Ministers would meet to discuss the scale of assessment.

v) With regard to African financial institutions, the Commission informed the meeting that 16 countries had signed the Statutes for the African Investment Bank which will be hosted by Libya. The Commission further indicated that 13 ratifications would be needed for the statute to come into force. The Commission further indicated that the three African financial institutes would be included in the 2016 priorities;

vi) With regard to mitigation measures, the Commission undertook to include them in the document;

vii) On the progress of the establishment of the African Central Bank and the other Monetary Institutions (African Monetary Fund and African Investment Bank), the Commission explained that to date, 16 countries have signed the statute and 12 have ratified the instrument for the bank to come into force; viii) The Commission also informed the meeting that it was working with Central Bank Governors to adopt the strategy on one currency. The Commission further pointed out that the African Monetary Fund document has been adopted and once established could act as a clearing house for the various national currencies;

ix) On the issue of high cost of remittances and the current efforts deployed to reduce the cost, the Commission took note, explaining that the African Institute of Remittances had already been established and this would be reflected in the document; further, the Commission would spearhead efforts to create opportunities where the diaspora can securely invest, e.g. bonds;

x) Commission also agreed to put more emphasis on connectivity as key to the success of the CFTA;

xi) With regard to the High Speed Train, the Commission informed the meeting that the train would facilitate the integration of the continent. The Commission also pointed out that Memorandum of Understanding had already been signed with China which will finance the project. Furthermore, a technical meeting was taking place in South Africa to discuss technical modalities of the project.

e) Member States also noted that the AUC strategic plan 2014-2017 did not anticipate the African Union Agenda 2063 and that it was therefore important to look for additional sources of funding for Agenda 2063;
