Submitted in Accordance with Article 54 of the African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights

41ST ACTIVITY REPORT OF THE AFRICAN COMMISSION ON HUMAN AND PEOPLES' RIGHTS

I. INTRODUCTION

1. This 41st Activity Report of the African Commission on Human and Peoples' Rights (the Commission), which is presented in accordance with Article 54 of the African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights (the African Charter), covers the period sandwiched between the Commission's 58th and 59th Ordinary Sessions, held in May and November 2016, respectively.

II. STATUTORY MEETINGS HELD DURING REPORTING PERIOD

2. Five (5) statutory meetings were held during the reporting period, namely: (i) the 9th and 10th Meetings of the Joint Bureaux of the Commission and the African Court on Human and Peoples' Rights (the Court) held on 16 July 2016 in Kigali, Rwanda, and 19 September 2016, in Arusha, Tanzania, respectively; (ii) the 20th Extraordinary Session held from 9 to 18 June 2016 in Banjul, Islamic Republic of The Gambia; (iii) the 5th Annual General Meeting of the Commission and the Court held from 20 to 22 September 2016 in Arusha, Tanzania; and (vi) the 59th Ordinary Session of the Commission held from 21 October to 4 November 2016 in Banjul, Islamic Republic of The Gambia.

a) 9th and 10th Meeting of the Joint Bureaux of the Commission and the African Court on Human and Peoples' Rights

3. The 9th and 10th Meetings of the Bureaux of the Commission and the Court were held pursuant to the complementarity of the two institutions and their respective mandates and Rules of Procedure. Amongst other things, the Meetings discussed outstanding matters including progress regarding the establishment and operationalization of the Pan African Human Rights Institute (PAHRI) and the Legal Aid Fund; reports from the Joint Committees of the Commission and the Court; as well as activities to commemorate 2016 as the African Year of Human Rights under the theme "2016: African Year of Human Rights with Particular Focus on the Rights of Women (African Year of Human Rights).

b) 5th Joint Annual Meeting of the Commission and the Court (Arusha, Tanzania, 19 to 22 September 2016)

4. The 5th Joint Annual Meeting of the Commission and the Court took place in Arusha, Tanzania, from 20 to 22 September 2016, and discussed different matters pertaining to their complementarity with a view to enabling the two Organs to deliver better and more effectively on their mandates.

c) 20th Extraordinary Session – Banjul, Islamic Republic of The Gambia, 9 to 18 June 2016

5. During the 20th Extraordinary Session, the Commission, inter alia, adopted five (5) Resolutions; considered twenty-seven (27) Communications; and held a meeting with a delegation from the African Peer Review Mechanism (APRM) focusing on possible areas of cooperation and collaboration.

d) 59th Ordinary Session - Banjul, The Gambia, 21 October to 4 November 2016

6. A total of five hundred and eighty-one (581) Delegates participated in the 59th Ordinary Session; with one hundred and twenty-nine (129) representing twenty-six (26) Member States, thirty-one (31) representing the African Union and its Organs, thirty-nine (39) representing National Human Rights Institutions (NHRIs), thirteen (13) representing international and inter-governmental organisations, two hundred and ninety-eight (298) representing non-governmental organisations (NGOs), and forty-five (45) representing other observers and the media.

7. The Opening Session of the 59th Ordinary Session was a truly historic and befitting one in that it was a Joint Opening of two Organs of the African Union (AU), namely the Commission and the African Committee on the Rights and Welfare of the Child (Children's Committee). This was the very first time that two AU Organs have synchronized their activities so as to sit in the same country, same city, on the same dates, held a Joint Opening of their respective Sessions and also held a joint sitting to discuss matters common to their respective mandates. The synchronization was in commemoration of 2016 as African Year of Human Rights.

8. The Joint Opening Ceremony was attended by the following AU entities which have a human rights mandate: the African Court on Human and Peoples' Rights; African Union Commission on International Law, African Union Advisory Board on Corruption, African Peer Review Mechanism (APRM) and Department of Political Affairs of the AUC.

9. While H.E. the Chairperson of the African Union Commission, Dr. Nkosazana Dlamini Zuma, was not able to be personally present at the Joint Opening Ceremony, she was virtually present through the Message of Support which she sent. The 59th Ordinary Session of the Commission and the 25th Ordinary Session of the Children's Committee were jointly officially opened by Honourable Mama Fatima Singhateh, Attorney General and Minister of Justice of the Islamic Republic of The Gambia, on behalf of H.E. Aja Dr Isatou Njie Saidy, the Vice-President of the Islamic Republic of The Gambia, the Commission's host country.

10. A Human Rights Dialogue was organised within the framework of the Session in line with the commemorative nature of the 59th and 28th Ordinary Sessions of the Commission and the Children's Committee respectively. The Dialogue brought together all stakeholders working in the field of human rights, including AU Organs with a human rights mandate; UN Agencies; National Human Rights Institutions; States Parties; NGOs as well as individuals working in the field of human rights. The discussions focused on the main hurdles faced by human rights institutions in executing their respective mandates, as well as how these challenges impact the enjoyment of the rights enshrined in the various human rights instruments ratified by the States Parties. The Dialogue further considered the factors inhibiting State Parties in their efforts to comply with their obligations under the various human rights instruments and also explored factors that could enable State Parties to better comply with and implement the decisions of AU Human Rights Organs.

12. The Commission also seized the commemorative nature of this Session to organise interactive sessions of its Special Mechanisms to highlight and exchange perspectives on different human rights issues on the continent, especially as they pertain to women. Representatives of twenty four (24) State Parties, eight (8) National Human Rights Institutions, thirty-five (35) NGOs having Observer Status with the Commission made statements during the interactive panel discussions.

13. Also as part of the commemorative activities celebrating the African Year of Human Rights, the Commission in collaboration with the Gambia Youth Council in conjunction with the AU African Youth Division and the African Youth Commission together organized a Youth Panel, to give the youth a voice in human rights issues affecting them and provide them with a platform from which to articulate the challenges they face and make recommendations for going forward. The Youth Panel further sought to create awareness of the Declaration by Heads of State and Government of 2017 as the Year of the Youth in Africa under the theme “Harnessing the Demographic Dividend Through Investments in Youth”, and to garner stakeholder support for related activities.

26. During the reporting period, none of the eight (8) Requests for Provisional Measures issued by the Commission was responded to by the respective Respondent State Parties.

The Commission also seizes this opportunity to express its appreciation to the Republics of Namibia, Mauritania, Tunisia and South Africa for responding favourably to the Commission's requests to undertake promotion missions in their respective countries. These missions would be undertaken soon, on dates mutually agreed to between the Commission and the respective State Parties.

XI. ACTIVITIES OF COMMISSIONERS

33. Activities undertaken by Commissioners in their capacities as Members of the Commission and as Members of Special Mechanisms are available on the website of the Commission on www.achpr.org. These activities consist of participation in statutory meetings of the Commission, promotion missions, seminars, conferences, workshops and meetings organised by the Commission and its Special Mechanisms, and also those organised by human rights stakeholders such as State Parties, the United Nations system and civil society.

XII. THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION ON THE CONTINENT

34. This section was introduced pursuant to Executive Council Decision EX.CL/Dec.639 (XVIII) calling upon the Commission to brief the Policy Organs on the human rights situation on the continent. The practice of the Commission is to draw the content of this section from the interactions of the Commission with State Parties and NGOs with observer status with the Commission during Ordinary Sessions of the Commission, supplemented by information gathered as the Commission monitors the human rights situation in the various States Parties during the intersession period.

35. This time round, the content and format of the 59th Ordinary Session were framed in such a way as to reflect the commemorative nature of the occasion. Therefore, the exchanges that normally take place between the Commission and stakeholders were not as extensive as usual. Consequently, the information availed for this section was also not as extensive. It is against this background that the Commission highlights with appreciation the following developments:

a) Positive developments

- i) adoption of the Protocol to the African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights on the Rights of Older Persons by the Assembly of Heads of States and Governments of the African Union;
- ii) ratification of the Maputo Protocol by the Peoples' Democratic Republic of Algeria, making it the 38th State Party to ratify the instrument;
- iii) abolition of child marriages in the Islamic Republic of The Gambia and the Republic of Zimbabwe;
- iv) creation of a women's unit in prisons and provision of adequate facilities for female inmates with children in the Republic of Kenya, to improve prison conditions and protect prisoners' rights;
- v) building of new prisons to curb overcrowding and ensure prisoners safety in the People's Democratic Republic of Algeria;
- vi) reduction in female prisoners in the Islamic Republic of Mauritania to two (2);
- vii) implementation of the Guidelines on Conditions of Arrest, Police Custody and Pre-trial Detention in Africa (Luanda Guidelines) by the Republic of Malawi;
- viii) updating of its Sentencing Guidelines in the Republic of Uganda; and
- ix) the collective efforts deployed by different stakeholders including the International Committee of the Red Cross, the Swiss Government and the Federal Republic of Nigeria to secure the release of 21 of the Chibok girls who were captured more than two years back.

b) Areas of concern

36. The Commission notes with concern some of the following human rights challenges observed during the reporting period:

- i) continuing political crises of different intensities across the continent, with the attendant negative side effects on human rights generally and particularly on economic, social and cultural rights;

- ii) increasing numbers of refugees and internally displaced persons, including old people, unaccompanied children, victims of sexual violence and disabled people;
- iii) continued violence, discrimination, stigma and social exclusion directed at persons with albinism; and
- iv) arrests and harassment of journalists and human rights defenders in various parts of the continent.

XIII. ADMINISTRATIVE AND FINANCIAL SITUATION

a) Funding

37. The funding situation of the Commission has not improved. The Commission continues to rely on partners to fund some of its key activities such as Extraordinary Sessions, which are devoted mainly to the consideration of Communications. Such a situation is not desirable for an AU Organ dealing with such important and sensitive matters. Therefore the situation needs to be reviewed so that State Parties shoulder their responsibilities in this regard.

b) Staffing

38. The recruitment process is on-going and efforts are underway to fill a number of vacant posts, both at the professional and general services levels. The Commission expresses its appreciation to the AUC for the appointment of the Deputy Secretary who assumed duties on 1 October 2016, and hopes that the new round of recruitments will prioritise the appointment of Arabic and Portuguese Revisers and Interpreters, to enable the Commission to work, produce and communicate its work in all the official languages of the AU.

c) Construction of the Headquarters of the Commission

39. The Commission has nothing to add to its report in the 40th Activity Report, that the Commission had received on 31st March 2016, a copy of a correspondence from the Ministry of the Host Government addressed to the Ministry of Finance and Economic Affairs and to the Ministry of Justice, requesting these Ministries to provide an update on the construction of a Permanent Headquarters for the Commission.
