REPORT OF THE AFRICAN PEER REVIEW MECHANISM

REPORT OF THE AFRICAN PEER REVIEW MECHANISM

Background

1. At its 21st Session held in June 2014 in Malabo, Equatorial Guinea, the APR Forum resolved to transform the APR Secretariat to a state that would ensure a strong administrative capacity to effectively support APRM programmes.

2. To ensure implementation of some of the decisions which would bring stability at the Secretariat, the APR Forum approved the appointment of the current CEO of the NEPAD Agency to act as the Interim CEO for the APRM Secretariat pending the recruitment of a substantive CEO.

3. The Forum also tasked the Committee of Focal Points to work with Dr. Mayaki and the interim management team in putting together a clear reform agenda for the APRM, including an institutional assessment and the recruitment of a team of capable staff to run the Secretariat.

4. With the adoption of the Forum recommendation for the integration of the APRM into the AU Structure and Processes by the AU Assembly of Heads of State, the Forum commissioned a review of the practical modalities leading to the integration. The Forum had therefore anticipated a report of the progress on the integration, and the other key issues and outcomes at its 22nd Summit in Addis Ababa Ethiopia.

5. This brief report provides snapshot of the various pre-summit events and key decisions taken by the Heads of State at the 22nd Summit. The key highlights of the Summit were the following:

- Presentation of National Plan of Action Progress Reports from Benin;
- Presentation and adoption of the Report of the Committee of Focal Points on Transitional Management of the APRM, and Recruitment;
- Presentation and adoption of the Monitoring and Evaluation Framework for the APRM;
- Election of a Vice- Chair of the APR Forum;
- Appointment of the Chief Executive Officer of the APRM Secretariat;
- Appointment of new members of the APR Panel of Eminent Persons;
- Extension of the mandate of the Chair and Vice Chairperson until June Summit.
