Chairperson Faki and Minister Lavrov underscored the importance and leading role of multilateral institutions such as the United Nations and the African Union, as instruments to address the multifaceted and interconnected challenges confronting the international community.

The Russian side reiterated its readiness to share with the relevant African Union institutions, notably the African Center on the Study and Research on Terrorism, its list of foreign terrorists so that it could be availed to the African Union Member States, to further assist them in the fight against terrorism. Chairperson Faki welcomed this offer, and it was agreed that the modalities thereof would be worked out between the relevant institutions.
