Thirty-First Ordinary Session

CM/890-(XXXI)

Report of the Administrative Secretary-General on the Activities of the OAU Executive Secretariat at the UN in New York

NOTE OF PRESENTATION OF THE DOCUMENT ON CANDIDATURES

It will be recalled that during the 32nd Session of the General Assembly of the United Nations elections to the Security Council had led to certain difficulties within the African Group.

Problems had arisen from the fact that a delegation had questioned the very existence of the criteria and directives which have guided the African Group in this consideration of the question of candidatures for the last ten years.

This delegation had then alleged that since these criteria and directives never had had the sanction of the Council of Ministers or the endorsement of the Heads of State, they could not be viewed as a law having a binding effect on the Members of the Group.

It was against this background that during the meeting convened to draw the lessons from what had happened during the 32nd Session that the African Group decided, among other things, that the existing oriteria should be up-dated, reviewed by the entire Group and forwarded to the 31st Session of the Council of Ministers for final approval and endorsement by the Heads of States and Government (Refer to the report of the Secretary-General of the OAU on the activities of the Executive Secretariat of the OAU in New York).

Attached to the present note is document No. CAN/ 111/OAU/72 Ref.2/65/77/Rev.3/192/78/Rev.4 Which has been adopted by all the Members of the African Group, with the reservation of the delegation of Nigeria, during its Meeting of Thursday 22, June, 1978, after three long previous meetings during which all the aspects of the document were thoroughly considered.

The African Group strongly recommends the said document for approval by the Council of Ministers.

2) Application of Basic Criteria

- (a) The Non-Re-election
- (b) The Non-Pluralism(c) The date-line for submission of Candidature.

(a) Non-Re-Election

(1) Priority would be given to the candidate applying for the first time and who has never served before on this body on condition that its candidature be submitted on time.

- (2) In case competing candidates have served on a body, priority would be granted to the one who does not seek immediate re-election or to the candidate whose mandate was first to expire.
- (3) In applying the criteria of non-re-election, the Committee will take into account those countries who who in virtue of secret ballot served one year of their normal mandate.

(b) Non-Cumulation

- (1) Priority would be given to candidates who are not represented on any of the following organs:
 - Security Council
 - The Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC)
 - United Nations Development Programme (UNDP)
 - World Food Council
 - UN Organization for Industrial Development
 - UN Programme on Environment
- (2) In the framework of the ECOSOC Commissions, priority would go to Member States not occupying a seat on the Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC).
- (3) The criteria of Non-cumulation will not be applied to Member States occupying seats at the express request of the African Group.

(c) Dateline for Submission of Candidatures

The OAU Executive Secretariat will publish at the beginning of each year a document reviewing the position of African States in the various UN bodies, the list of vacant seats for the current year and the dateline fixed for submission of candidatures to the Candidature Committee.

- C) WHEN NO CRITERIA CAN BE APPLIED TO CANDIDATES, THE FOLLOWING PROCEDURE WILL GUIDE:
- The Committee will carry out negotiations among the competing candidates of the same region so as to reach an agreement.
- CONCENSUS WITH THE CONSENT OF THE COMPETING CANDIDATES

 In case negotiations do not reach an agreement, the competing candidates would be selected on the basis of regional concensus.

When a regional group is unable to reach a concensus, the competing candidates would be selected by a concensus of the African Group.

IV. GENERAL OBSERVATIONS

The candidature Committee appeals to African Member States to submit their candidatures to the Executive Secretariat for transmission to members of the African Group.

The Secretariat would issue after the date fixed for the submission of candidatures a document showing the candidatures received and the date they were received. Organs
