The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Burkina Faso presents its compliments to the General Secretariat of the Organization of African Unity (OAU) and has the honour to inform the latter that the Government of Burkina Faso has decided to present the candidature of Mrs. DAKOURE nee SERE for one of the three seats on the African Commission on Human and Peoples' Rights, to be filled during elections which will be held at the Thirty-third Ordinary Session of the Assembly of Heads of State and Government scheduled for Harare, in June 1997.

Judge by training, Mrs. DAKOURE has, since 1994, been occupying the post of Director General of the National School of Law and Administration, Burkina Faso and in this capacity, has exercised important functions in the country's judicial system.

Mrs. DAKOURE's experience and dedicated service have cut her out perfectly for the African Commission on Human and Peoples' Rights. The decision to present Mrs. DAKOURE's candidature for the seat on the African Commission on Human and Peoples' Rights is motivated by the Government's interest in, and the importance it attaches to, the deep-seated aspirations of our continent, as well as its readiness to contribute substantially to the efforts deployed by the Organization.

Mrs. DAKOURE's Curriculum Vitae is attached hereto.

The Ministry would be grateful if the General Secretariat could be kind enough to disseminate the contents of this Note Verbale to all Member States of the Organization, and for any other action it would take to give this Note all the attention it deserves.
