COMMUNIQUE

The Peace and Security Council of the African Union (AU), at its 411th meeting, held at the level of Heads of State and Government, in Banjul, The Gambia, on 30 December 2013, adopted the following decision on the situation in the Central African Republic (CAR), including the deployment of the African-led International Support Mission in the CAR (MISCA) and its resource requirements:

Council,

2. Recalls its earlier communiqués and press statements on the situation in the CAR, notably on the deployment of MISCA, as well as related United Nations Security Council resolutions, particularly resolution 2127 (2013) of 5 December 2013;
3. Welcomes the transfer of authority on 19 December 2013 from the Peace Consolidation Mission of the Economic Community of Central African States (MICOPAX) to MISCA;
4. Commends MISCA and its leadership for the tremendous efforts they are deploying with the support of the French Operation Sangaris, in very difficult conditions. Council pays tribute to MISCA's personnel for the sacrifices made and expresses appreciation to all the troop and police contributing countries for their commitment. Council also reiterates its appreciation to ECCAS and MICOPAX for their contribution to the quest for peace, security and stability in the CAR;
5. Notes the ongoing efforts by the Commission to deploy additional uniformed personnel, as a follow-up to communiqué PSC/PR/COMM.2(CDVIII), adopted by Council at its 408th meeting, held on 13 December 2013, authorizing the increase of MISCA's strength up to 6,000 military and police personnel, to effectively deal with the current situation. Council expresses its confidence in the ability of MISCA to rapidly contribute to the improvement of the security situation and ease the current tension, and welcomes the ongoing efforts by MISCA's leadership to reorganize the force;
6. Further welcomes the visit undertaken to Bangui, on 28 December 2013, by a joint AU-ECCAS delegation, comprising the Minister of Foreign Affairs of Chad and the Ministers of Foreign Affairs and of Defense of the Republic of Congo, as well as the AU Commissioner for Peace and Security, and encourages the two organizations, in cooperation with the international partners concerned, to take other steps to facilitate the early conclusion of the current transition and reconciliation among all CAR people. Council reminds the CAR authorities of their responsibilities, particularly with respect to the protection of the civilian population and the promotion of peaceful and harmonious coexistence among all the sections of the CAR society;
7. Stresses the need for AU Member States to fully support MISCA, notably by availing the much-needed financial resources. In this respect, Council urges all Member States to seize the opportunity of the donors Conference scheduled to take place in Addis Ababa on 1 February 2014, in line with the relevant provisions of UN Security Council resolution 2127 (2013), to make contributions to the funding of MISCA;
