The Minister congratulated the Women, Gender and Development Directorate for organizing the important meeting and noted that the 2nd STC is coinciding with the 16 Days of Activism Campaign Against Gender-Based Violence. GBV, is one of the most widespread and persistent violation of the rights of women and girls. Introductory Remarks by Mrs. Mahawa Kaba -Wheeler, Director of the Women, Gender and Development Directorate (WGDD)

9. The Director welcomed all delegates to the 2nd STC on Gender Equality and Women's Empowerment and thanked everyone for contributing to the discussions since the beginning of the STC. Statement on behalf of H.E.Mr. Mousa Faki Mahamat, Chairperson of the African Union Commission

Mr. Mousa Faki Mahamat, the Chairperson of the African Union Commission. She welcomed all participants to the AUC and to this 2nd STC and expressed appreciation for the STC Bureau in the work they are doing in advancing the rights of women.

11. Expressing concerns about the high prevalence of violence against women and girls in Africa, the Chairperson emphasised the necessity, on the occasion of the 16 Days of Activism Against Gender Based Violence, to accelerate the implementation of policies that end violence against women and girls on the continent. The AU has prioritised, under Aspiration 6 of Agenda 2063 to end violence and discrimination against women and girls as well as to end all harmful social norms and customary practices that promote violence and discrimination against women and girls in Africa. Ministers were encouraged to accelerate the implementation of policies that end violence against women and girls, including those that address concerns such as harmful traditional practices like early child marriage and female genital mutilation; marital rape; domestic violence; child prostitution, sexual harassment and forced sterilization.

12. The Chairperson referred to reports of African migrants being sold in slave markets in Libya and noted the multiple violations that women suffer in such circumstances. While action is taken to assist the voluntary repatriation of migrants, it was noted that urgent action is needed to address the conditions that lead to young people leaving the continent in that manner. Recognising the increased feminisation of migration, the Chairperson called on Ministers to bring policy attention to the specificities that female migrants face and propose effective strategies and concrete action to address this challenge.

13. The meeting was congratulated for the 40 ratifications of the Maputo Protocol and Member States who are yet to ratify were encouraged to do so soon and those who have ratified to accelerate implementation.
