16. In introducing this Agenda item, the Executive Secretary of WARDA briefly outlined the problems and effects of the drought. He said further co-ordination of activities of African inter-governmental organizations was necessary. Many delegates outlined measures taken by their various organizations in respect of the drought.

17. The AAASA decided to give high priority to the problem of the drought. It planned to organize, this year, a symposium to study the possibility of setting up a committee to examine all aspects of the effect of the drought.
